I'm out of love
My heart is closed
It stays alive
But it's chasing a ghost
All of the times
I held you close to me
What if I'd known how short it would be

All the love that you left behind
Keeps on living inside my mind, baby

Chorus:
I guess it's time to let you go
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
Left undone, but now it's dead
Time has come to let you go

Another year
Another start
I'm not alone
Still lonley at heart
As time goes by
I'm sure I'll find a way
To keep the tears a heartbeat away

All the questions you left behind
Keeps repeating inside my mind, baby

Chorus:
I guess it's time to let you go (Baby)
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
Left undone, but now it's dead
Time has come to let you go

I'm not afraid to let you go
But the thought that I might forget
Oh baby
The things that made me love you so
Your smile, your tears, that's what I fear

Oooh-oooh-oooh-oooh

Chorus:

I know it's time to let you go (Ooh)
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
Left undone, but now it's dead
Time has come to let you go

I guess it's time to let you go (Baby)
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
Left undone, but now it's dead
Time has come to let you go (Oh yeah)

That so much was left unsaid
Left undone, but now it's dead
The time has come to let you go
