I'm just a good guy baby
Looking for a friend
I'm just a lonely guy
A broken heart to mend
The reason that your heart
Is filled with pain
Is on a plane
He's so far away
Wont be back again.

I'm just a good guy baby
Looking for a friend
I'm just a lonely guy
I'll be with you until the end
Rely on your feelings
In your heart
Please don't cry
Please try
Lets sit and talk
And find the reason why

All the people that I meet
Along the street
Say we look good together
And we'll find our feet
Listen to me closely
Hear the words I say
Lie back on your pillow
Dream of love each day

I'm just a good guy baby
Looking for a friend
I'm a just lonely guy
I'll be with you until the end
Take my word our life
We could be
As one
You know it's true
Our love is young
So hold me close to you
