Meet me in the misty morning
Where the snow is on the bough
Wear your bright red lipstick honey
As I remember anyhow
I'll be waiting by the lake
Where the willows overhang
By the boathouse landing stage
I'm waiting now.

Wear your denim hipsters honey
Those I remember anyhow
We go back to another time
When our horizons had no clouds
Songs were pure and came in rhyme
Swallows flew so low
By the boathouse landing stage
I'm waiting now

Bridge solo

Call me up when your back in town
We'll make another day
I'll bring the wine, the one you like
As I remember anyhow
We go back to another time
Our horizons had no clouds
Just call me up we'll make a plan
I'm waiting now.
