Way out west
I took a summers break
Found this island
In the middle of a lake
And a lonely bar
And somewhere just for me

Way out west
I didn't search far
Found my first love
Serving at the bar
Siddled up to her
And asked her for a dance

Bridge

The country band
Was winding down
Had no place to stay that night
She came into
My life that lucky day
I soon got to know her
In the fading light
This was the woman
Who would change my life
It's funny how things
Just seem to turn out right

Way out west
I don't know why
I took a chance
And she caught my eye
Low on sleep
And late at night

Way out west
The times pass by
It's ten years gone
Since she caught my eye
We have memories
That will linger on
