

Crucified "Eurydice"

Visit "Eurydice" on MotoLyrics.com

A focused voice reigns down like a firestorm
You know what you must do
Venture down into the underworld
To prove that love is true

Eurydice don't follow me
The world has grown so cold
Eurydice don't follow me
My love I'm losing hold

If my voice won't move the Ferryman
On my affections alone I'll cross
Then stare into the eyes of death eternal
No matter what the cost

(chorus)

Sacrifices and the light that leads me here through this night as vision breaks the world grows dim persephone argue my case to him I'll take his word no looking back the bridge we cross still cannot look and her footsteps I do not hear is she far behind me or standing near?

(chorus)
