Call the card
Left to lay
Just a path

Against our future days
Lay direction
Read the face
Understand our crooked ways

Smile at this
Directed plain
Her eyes are cracking
In their wrinkled gaze
The light is dancing
On the tabletop

Restlessness that just won't stop
Now planted deeply
Suggesting fate

Eating sweet naivet?
Was it mirror
Or window glass?
The subtle residue
Beyond your grasp

Hang the man
By his legs let us hang the man

(repeat)
