Take off your trousers and hang them in the air
I know you're blocked but no one seems to care

When the sun goes down on all the things you said
When the sun goes up on all the living-dead

Why must you hide in the lazy shade of timeÂ...
Won't you set your dreams on fire, won't you set yr
dreams on fire
Won't you set yr dreams on fire
In the sunÂ...

Hand out your prizes the ones you lock away
'cause they don't mean a single thing today

When the sun goes down on all the things you said
When the sun goes up on all the living-dead

Why must you hide in the lazy shade of time
Won't you set your dreams on fire, won't you set yr
dreams on fire
Won't you set yr dreams on fire

Why must you hide in the lazy shade of time
Won't you set your dreams on fire, won't you set yr
dreams on fire
Won't you set yr dreams on fire In the sunÂ...
