I just wanna love
where I shed this body right off me I just wanna love
where the past can't shape who I am

I can't escape these thoughts or these dreams of you leaving me
how stupid of me to give these lovely dreams to frightened nightmares you take my heart to a place I want forever this love is pulling me apart because I don't know who I am you are all that I've dreamed of, you're showing me a way to heaven

I'm trying to fix it
please wait for me
I'll be better soon

I just wanna love
evils got a grip on my body I just wanna love
what's taking me so long?

day comes night goes you're standing still I run off with the stars again
