I do not mean to make you unhappy

listen closely to the hesitant waves rolling in

kiss me forever
raindrops get blown by the wind into the rushing river it flows it flows into the sea
lemondrops melt into my mouth and creeps out of my pores it flows, it flows into the sea

I come from venus
and you come from venice you melt my heart with your little rebel smile

teardrops fall down my face seep down into the ground it flows
moondrops rain down from the clouds they glow as they spin and fall and it lights up the sea
