Everyday the pain dies a little
I'm not at the end but I'm way past the middle
I know when I'm all healed up
I'll be back with a heart and ready to love

Good as new or maybe better
So glad to know the tears aren't forever
Tears dry and soon enough
I'll be back with a heart and ready to love

Doesn't mean that
All the hurt is through
But more and more I think of me
And less and less of you

You're hard to forget but I'm gonna do it
Thought I would die but I'm livin' right through it
I won't give up so don't call my bluff
I'll be back with a heart and ready to love

No, it doesn't mean that
All the hurt is through
But more and more I think of me
And less and less of you

Every day the pain dies a little
I'm not at the end but I'm way past the middle
I know when I'm all healed up
I'll be back with a heart and ready to love
I know when I'm all healed up
I'll be back with a heart and ready to love
Ready to love
