Olivia Newton-John & Richard Marx

Every day Iâ'd wake and ask myself
Was I strong enough for you
Foolish doubts and fears took me away
Iâ'm sorry now you never knew

For so long I wondered where you are
Underneath a tapestry of stars
In my heart I knew youâ'd come again
I just didnâ't know where or when

Heaven waits for us through loveâ's open door
And itâ's brought you back to me once more
Heart, donâ't fail me now, now that you are near
Love was never far away from here

I have tried to make some sense of this
I guess I needed time away
Once I realised how foolish Iâ'd been
I couldnâ't waste another day

I forgive you with my heart and soul
And now itâ's time for us to lose control
Take me in your arms like you did before
Darling, donâ't talk any more

Heaven waits for us through loveâ's open door
And itâ's brought you back to me once more
Heart, donâ't fail me now, now that you are near
Love was never far away from here

Somewhere deep inside I always knew
That I was meant to spend my life with you
Youâ're the only answer to my prayers
I knew that love would lead us back somewhere

Through loveâ's open door
And itâ's brought you back to me once more
Heart, donâ't fail me now, now that you are near
Love was never far away from here
Ooh, oh, yeah, mmm
