Today, there is something on my mind you said that I'm not really your kind
So long, it was good while it lasted,
Mmm
Today, I can do without today,
Tomorrow may be better.

Today, I'm thinking what you told me,
Go away, there is nothing to hold me,
I cried, but my tears didn't help now
Today i can do without today,
Tomorrow may be better.

Last night spent the whole night crying,
I don't think I'll ever sleep again.
Last night I thought that I was dying
I don't think I'll ever sleep again.

But today, I'm just slept with a memory
No chance, that you'll come back and want me,
Because, someone else is in my place
Mmm
Today, I can live without today,
Tomorrow may be better
Today, Today, Today
