"Kill The Grey"

Reheat my, reheat my... heart so the heat
Will restart, restart the... dwindling Fire that separates... I from I Countdown that has begun...
7, 6, 5, for What I am doing...
I do not understand
For what I will do... that I don't practice
But what I hate that I do falling backwards, anticipate the hit
Seeing nothing but stars
A moment in the changing my mind I take it back, change the past
Pull the rug, pull the rug... from which I stand Stab myself, myself in... the back again
Sabotage comes from... inside out Guilty I look, pick the... culprit out I'm waiting for the storm to break
The clouds to go away
Soon there will be colors
To kill, kill the grey, awaken the new day
Wake up new day, I'm waiting, wake up new day
