Tell me why you think you need something more
Now is the time to move on
Sing a new song

Day by day passes by (passes by)
You say you're doing fine
But you're never full
Always on empty never enough stuff
Always wanting something here on this earth to attain

Look to the stars
Cuz that's where you'll see
Treasures in heaven waiting for me
Not on this earth where rust will destroy
For all of this world will soon pass away

Tell me why you think you need something more
Now's the time to move on
Sing a new song

Day by day passes by (passes by)
You say you're doing fine
But you're never full
Always on empty never enough stuff
Always wanting something here on this earth to attain

In this world of greed
It's time to move on
He's all you need
Now sing a new song

In this world of greed
You're weak but He's strong
He's all you need
Forget what's been done
Now see what's to come
See what's to come
