You lost out
Calling back to me
You got the way you don't need a change
Calling back to me
It's something worn and weak you're feeling
You got the way you don't need a change

And then it all starts
You got me feeling free
You know I'm doing fine
I'm feeling sanctified
Come back to me
We'll do it all again
But there's something you just can't believe in
They'll find you out instead of me

Our last place
Softened blue and stone
Cool but not cold
Come away, this position you gotta take
Everybody knows

You say you're fine but you don't think so
You got the way you don't need a change

And then it all starts
You got me feeling free
You know I'm doing fine
I'm feeling sanctified
Come back to me
We'll do it all again
But there's something you just can't believe in
They'll find you out instead of me
All too soon

And then it all starts
You got me feeling free
You know I'm doing fine
I'm feeling sanctified
Come back to me
We'll do it all again
