I wanna wake up before the rooster.
I wanna fire up those mighty boosters.
I feel fine, the universe is mine on ignition.
We are two kids with a mission.

We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We were born for greatness. Nothing picayune.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.

I wanna suck my lunch from plastic packets.
I want life support in all my jackets.
We can see, how proud we're gonna be,
As commanders of that lunar lander.

We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
I'm a rocket baby, I sing a rocket tune.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.

I'm gonna floor that accelerator.
I'm gonna buzz through a lunar crater.
Check that crust.
So crumbly and dusty and rocky.
It's cool to be a rocket jockey.

We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We were born to follow, in the footsteps of Apollo.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
