I could live a thousand years
If I could be alone with you
You
Every second of my life
I would never play the fool
Never turn my back to you

I was the one who saw you first
A grain in the sands of the universe
I never knew what was ahead of me
Now I'm out of the eyes of the wintertime
And here in the sun

I'll stay inside your shades of love
Makes one day forever
And when July has come and gone
This day will last forever

When I see the way you look
The way you look my way
Through the rain
And the water crashing down
Washes both of us away
Away

I was the one who saw you first
A grain in the sands of the universe
I never knew what was ahead of me
Now I'm out of the eyes of the wintertime
And here in the sun

I'll stay inside your shades of love
Makes one day forever
And when July has come and gone
This day will last forever

I'm here inside your shades of love
Makes one day forever

She's all I see in front of me
She's all I need...

I could live a thousand years
If I could be alone with you

And here in the sun
I'll stay inside your shades of love
Makes one day forever
And when July has come and gone
This day will last forever

I'm here inside your shades of love
Makes one day forever
And when July has come and gone
This day will last forever

One day forever
One day forever
One day forever
One day forever...
