It's always time for imagination
Why not design a new trend?
What you create could inspire a conversation
Next thing you've made a new friend

See what takes shape
When you make a fashion statement
With buttons that glow in the dark
It'll be great, no matter how you cut it
Soon you'll be making your mark

Might be surprised
As you see ideas unfold
Draw from inspiration
Got to stand out, be bold

Chorus:

Hey! Hey! It's time for something different
Hey! Hey! Why can't it come from me or you?
Hey! Hey! We've got a chance to show our colors
That's what we're gonna do
We're gonna start somethin' new
We're gonna start somethin' new
We're gonna start somethin' new
We're gonna start somethin' new
Look at us now the next generation
Got our own style, song, and dance
Get in the act and begin a new sensation
Who wouldn't jump at the chance?

From black to white
Whatever suits you head to toe
Don't be shy
Because they're your dreams
Let's go!

Chorus

We're stepping forward
Yes, we're on our way

A new tomorrow will begin today! (today, today)

Chorus
