We touched with our eyes
Unleashing just more pain than fire
The truth was plain to see
The magic was gone
In came the breeze from a dark night

You're telling me lies
But I know just what you desire
It's not your liberty
You want me to pay
You turn me away from the light

I gaze at frozen stars
I wonder where you are
My heart's forever marked with blood red scars
I gaze at frozen stars
I know now who you are
Sometimes I think my eyes have seen too far
You rule the night

A storm will -a-rise
Breathing out torment and agony
It's our final hour
Into the night
We flee for our lives
There's no mercy

I hear your voice
But you just declared me your enemy
You use the darkest power
Blood and revenge
They will be your legacy

I gaze at frozen stars
I wonder where you are
My heart's forever marked with blood red scars
I gaze at frozen stars
I know now who you are
Sometimes I think my eyes have seen too far
You rule the night
