In the land of the morning sun
I once called home
Eagles fly over misty mountains

In the land of the morning sun
At the gates of dawn
Water sprang out of marble fountains

Now it's just a distant memory
A dream of home and how things used to be

In the land of the morning sun
I met my love
Never doubted she was the one

In the land of the morning sun
From deep down below
T swallowed our cries and
Silenced our sacred song

Now we're sold as slaves to the Kingdom of Babylon

Locked in chains we're cursed to sail forever
Into eternity
Between the stars and the sea we dream together
Re-living memories

By the light of the morning sun
I swear my oath
Hear me now mighty Gods above

By the light of the morning sun
I will have them both
My freedom and revenge
I will rise and fight
Once again I can hear the song

May hellfire burn
All the gardens of Babylon

Locked in chains we're cursed to sail forever

Into eternity
Between the stars and the sea we dream together
Re-living memories
