Faster and faster
We're riding the wind
With one destination alone
Something is wrong here
A chill in the air
The reaper is calling his own

You've got to stay awake
'Cause he's in your dreams
You will end up in the land of the dead
Just stay awake
Don't let him near
Don't look back, don't let go, keep your head

Through the ice and snow in a land unknown
My heart is calling out for you
Through the ice and snow a little light shall glow
It's the love I feel for you

Further and further
Into the night
A flickering light in the black (black)
Riding on rainbows
And yesterday's glory
Still home is calling us back

You've got to stay awake
'Cause he's in your dreams
You will end up in the land of the dead
Just stay awake
Don't let him near
Don't look back, don't let go, keep your head

Through the ice and snow in a land unknown
My heart is calling out for you
Through the ice and snow a little light shall glow
It's the love I feel for you
