"Close My Eyes"

My grieve is anchored in the rain
I feel the pleasure and the pain
But happiness is mine
And I feel fine
Pastel shades
Shades of gray
I'll fade away it doesn't always
Have to rain
Easily bored
You can't hold my attention long
My concentrations already gone
Wish you were too
Light a candle
Watch the yellow flame burn
Illuminated by the flickering
Toxicated by the centered ???
So I close my eyes
Misty dawn
I see you through the foggy dew
You've got to seize the day you say
I wish you away
And so I close my eyes
World in the skies
Absence of light darkness is right
Leave me alone
And so I close my eyes
World in the skies
Absence of light darkness is right
Leave me alone
So I close my eyes
