Sitting in the silent twilight
The purple half light
Of the twilight
Wrap the night around me
Blanket of black on my back
I feel safe in the darkness
Your voices are caressed
The lights my senses
Hident my happiness
Lightened my sadness
Your eyed were on me I remember
Those days in September
Sunset run night
Your hand held in mine
Sitting in the silent twilight
The purple half light
Of the twilight
Wrap the night around me
Blanket of black on my back
I feel safe in the darkness
The silence is so loud
I almost feel it
Nothing to say now
Barely can talk now
I'm feeling like I'm lost
I'm feeling dumb
Speechless en numb
So long I've been blind
I'm losing my mind
Sitting in the silent twilight
The purple half light
Of the twilight
Wrap the night around me
Blanket of black on my back
I feel safe in the darkness
Sitting in the silent twilight rapture
Could it be to hard to capture ?
This velvet moment of serenity
