"Life Without You"

I call your name
I call your name but you're not there
Life without you
Life with you is so hard to bear

My jealous heart drove you away
And now I must suffer for my mistake

I call your name
I call your name but you're not there
Life without you
Life with you is so hard to bear

I wake at night screamin' and cryin'
Since you've been gone I just feel like dying

I call your name
I call your name but you're not there
Life without you
Life with you is so hard to bear
