When the moon is full late at night
And the old Tom cat begins to fight
That's when I'm out to make my rounds
I head to your house there ain't a soul around

Open up and let me in
I'm your Midnight Ramblin' Man
I'm your Ramblin' Man

I know when your man is out
On your doorstep I begin to howl
Me and you we gonna have a good time
Just open up and I'll come inside

Open up and let me in
I'm your Midnight Ramblin' Man
I'm your Ramblin' Man

Don't have to worry when your man gets home
Like a flash I'm up and gone
He slams the front door I jump out the back
Won't be a trace of where I'm at

Open up and let me in
I'm your Midnight Ramblin' Man
I'm your Ramblin' Man
