Take your history
and put it down below
where the monument of life is now gone
many memories
and inventions flow
which makes you wonder
where they got it all...

Now we cross
a different path in time
where everything
has changed... and I belong to a new dimension of hatred or love that tells us..

Chorus:
hold on to whatever you've done but there's no reason to stop evolving on the things you've done in life when all of your ancestors made the life that we're on now we make a perfect recreation of the past but we are only sinking down and everything just makes us worse than our other times
than the other people in the past yeeehhhhhh...

tv and radio playing
newspapers on the streets
how do you escape
all that controversy?
if one thing is said
and others are incorrect perhaps is the fact that no one really understands that life is short

and it comes to a point of desperation

where everyone tries to get attention but at the end they are all wrong...

Chorus

(speech)

we must go on....
