I can't live with you, but I can't live without ya
Not breathing with you, it hard to breathe without ya Think to myself everyday
How they split us apart, for different men that shared the same heart
It had to happen this way
Us go our separate way
Would be lying if I said I didn't miss col-fax days Sit and think to myself how this thing has changed my life
(Damn we was suppose to be boys for life)

[Chorus]

This is my growin pains
Cause by the fortune and fame
Thought we'd be together forever and ever and everrrrr
Never thought that we'd go our separate ways
Now look how things have changed
Looks like there never ever be the same
So hard to explain what went wrong?
After we were together for too long
Now, never be the same again
Tell me how this thing happened
Damn, this is my growin pain

[Verse Two]

Some people don't know
That I tried it again
Even though I was sour (sour)
I tried to be a man (man)
I couldn't hold a grudge, knowing in my heart I still had love
But If ya'll knew what went down you'd be like what the FK
They say you don't know what you got until it's gone
Loyalty, honesty, where did we go wrong?
I guess it was god's plan for me to be alone.

[Chorus]

This is my growin pains
Cause by the fortune and fame

Thought weâ'd be together forever and ever and
everrrrr
Never thought that weâ'd go our separate ways

Now look how things have changed
Looks like there never ever be the same
So hard to explain what went wrong?
After we were together for too long
Now, never be the same again
Tell me how this thing happened
Damn, this is my growin pain

[Break Down]

How could this ever be, them no longer apart of me?
What did you do to turn them other boys against me?
I just have one thing to say
What you do comes back your way

[Omari Talking:]

So many things were said, so many false statements about me against my manager chris. Sometimes I just feel like giving up. Like I was nothing and Like I couldn't go on with out them. But know I feel like god is looking down on me and he should carry my soul. As I take this solo journey, I never meant for any of this to happen... Iâ'm sorry. But I have no regrets!

[Chorus]

This is my growin pains (I have no regrets)
Cause by the fortune and fame
Thought weâ'd be together forever and ever and
everrrrr
Never thought that weâ'd go our separate ways
Now look how things have changed
Looks like there never ever be the same
So hard to explain what went wrong?
After we were together for too long
Now, never be the same again
Tell me how this thing happened
Damn, this is my growin pain

Damn

Damn, this is my growin pain
