ohh, listen baby

see there's this girl that I know, and she's more (more then average, she's a perfect ten,) don't really know how to handle someone who (wants to put her on, make a number one) she's so used to, that mentality gotta hustle hard, ridin' in the streets that's so crazy, somebodys baby, goin' thru these things but I've got love for you, and I wanna show you girl ohh ohh ohh..

your friends don't like me for real though baby girl they say I'm no good for you they're jelous cause you finally found a real love who only wants the best for you yeah
I'm tryna take you out the hood show you something good make sure your okay, everything is straight you're a superstar, you deserve all more then just a ghettoqueen, (more then just a ghettoqueen) wanna put you in some diamonds, take you to the islands
show you everything you ain't never seen just let me take you out the hood(baby take you out the hood)
girl let me change your world for you babe take you out the hood tell me have you ever seen, white sands on a private beach tell me did you wanna go somewhere somewhere you've seen on TV but girl I got the means, to take you anywhere so don't let your friends cause you to be afraid they're just lonely, and you're the only only thing that matters to me even my homies, they gang on me cause they think they could do it for me

they're jealous cause you finally found a real love someone who only wants the best for you
more then just a ghettoqueen I wanna put you in some diamonds, take you to the
just let me take you out the hood babe

where I'm goin', you'll be comin' I wanna fly with you, go somewhere wit u ain't no lending if u only , baby all you gotta do is ask me
If you call me, girl I'm lonely yeah you shine brighter then the moon and the stars so let me show you something better babe let me show you and take you out the hood

I'm tryna take you out the hood, show you something good make sure you're okay, everything is straight
more then just a ghettoqueen,

baby take you out the hood girl
