Featuring Joe Budden

You in trouble
Baby, you in trouble
When you gonna get it
Open up your eyes
Come here, your gonna get it

Baby come in here, lay right there
Gonna touch your body everywhere
You rolling and shaking baby, I like that Telling me to go harder with your legs in the air

[Bridge]

Oh yeah, right now girl its about you, oh,
You yeah, I'm going down, down baby on you, oh
Imma do it here, Imma do it there
Imma do it like this, Imma do it like that Baby this is how its gonna go go go
When, when we make love
Imma go fast, Imma go slow
Imma go so hard girl you gon' say 'oooh'
Baby this is how its gonna go go go go
When we make love

[Hook]

Baby I know your ready, ready
Because your about to get it
Like you in trouble
Your about to get it
Like you in trouble (x2)

Imma give it to you like oh my god
Tell me how you want it Ima do it all
If you wanna release baby Ill fight that there
Its gon feel so good you gon pull your own hair

[Bridge]

Oh yeah, right now girl its about you, oh,

[Verse: Joe Budden]

She in trouble, had to slide right up under her
Had to be the only reason I would punish her
Tried to avoid it, had her girlfriends come with her
But they gon wait up in that living room till I'm done with her
They gon sit tight baby no interruptions
While I'm knocking down her walls like they under construction
French on her nails with her hair done beautifully
And what the fuck you thought them boy shorts was gunna do to me?
Face like Megan little thicker than Hale
Had me up all night as if my dick's into molly
I know that our endeavor was fun
'Cause she stored me in her phone
As he can have it whenever he wants

[Hook]

Baby I know your ready, ready
Because your about to get it
Like you in trouble
Your about to get it
Like you in trouble (x2)
