I find you, lying fetal
Knees pulled beneath your chin
Alluring bite sings empty promises
The entropy has pulled you in
Your heart pounds, your breathing is labored
Foolish things we do for fun
The world outside caving inward
Now what have you done? what have you done?

No life, No love, No dreams, No reason to remain
No eyes, No vision, No pain, No, No Nothing
No mind, No thought, No sex, No awe to feel
No heart, No Nothing, No, No, No Nothing

Fingers numb, a hand is reaching,
Asking, begging for a friend,
Your mouth is dry sting cotton frothing,
Spiral staircase towards the end,
Chest heaves and you stop breathing,
Numeric punch keys 911, bad
Chemestry, organic weakness,
Now what have you done? what have you done?

No life, No love, No dreams, No reason to remain,
No eyes, No vision, No pain, No, No Nothing, No
Mind, No thought, No sex, No awe to feel, No
Heart, No Nothing, No, No, No Nothing

No life, No love, No dreams, No reason to remain,
No eyes, No vision, No pain, No, No Nothing, No
Mind, No thought, No sex, No awe to feel, No
Heart, No Nothing, No, No, No Nothing
