In this fading image we'll carve our own destiny sometimes life is a cruel friend sometimes that's what we need

I'll hold my eyes, when the light comes in I'll sell my silence for a song now I won't die if you walk away but I may not live

Now I watch as the rain comes down to purify this pain when mountains crumble and stars collide
I am what remains

There are lessons that sadness can only teach there are things that we must learn
now I won't die if you walk away
but I may not live
