She and her face
Swallow it down
Take a little bit of silence to think it out a while

Her love lies, she better run and hide
Her love lies, lock her up with her crime
Her love lies, hear the words one more time
Her love lies, don't look her in the eyes

You
A fool to call my own
A treasure for my home
Still I revel in all my thoughts
Of only you
I'm a fool to call my own
You take pleasure when I'm wrong
Gotta take back all those songs about just you

She and her friends
Take them down too
Cause I'm a little bit suspicious they helped it all go down

Her love lies, she better run and hide
Her love lies, lock her up with her crime
Her love lies, hear the words one more time
Her love lies, don't look her in the eyes

You
A fool to call my own
A treasure for my home
Still I revel in all my thoughts
Of only you
I'm a fool to call my own
You take pleasure when I'm wrong
Gotta take back all those songs about just you
