You don't even care for me
I see right through you
You don't do a single thing
To show you care at all

Maybe if I said goodbye
Things would be better
But, baby, I would rather die
Than have you kill me slowly

You're either tearing me up or you're bringing me down
You're either tearing me up or you're bringing me down
But I won't stick around forever

Do you really want me to be
Your one and only?
Just take a good long look at me
It is time to decide

Baby when I'm dead and gone
Will you be happy?
Cause it's as good as said and done
If you want it to be

You're either tearing me up or you're bringing me down
You're either tearing me up or you're bringing me down
But I won't stick around

You don't want to have to face it
But you just can't chase this love around anymore
I've had enough

You're either tearing me up or you're bringing me down
But I won't stick around

I've had enough
I've had enough
I've had enough
I've had enough
