Axioms denied
A blessed offering,
The gift complete is your life (A gift ever increasing)

The doctrine of lifelessness is above me, a paragon of complete perdition
We must all die, for we are but flesh of the creation
Lose your life to gain unity: to enter The Devil

Immense enemy divine, the Evil One, ever beseeched Demonic hysteria; the insights and curses of being possessed by The Devil
I have received the darkest of visions Votary of a legion as vast as the sacrifice of it's legionaries

The doctrine of lifelessness is above me, a paragon of
complete perdition
We must all die, for we are but flesh of the creation
Lose your life to gain unity: to enter The Devil

Truthfully; an entering, and yet exit of divinity Cursed by the one God, locked in light fled obedience
Mors Christi
A hunger inhuman
The Ancient Dragon has always been present in false Christ
Complete perversion of the soul shall be our guide at the murder of joy!

The doctrine of lifelessness is above me, a paragon of
complete perdition
We must all die, for we are but flesh of the creation
Lose your life to gain unity: to enter The Devil
