am i unrecognizable?
losing my faith again
my hands shake as they reach for you turn away those eyes
those eyes that once were mine
can you see my face?
(am i losing faith)
can you hear my voice?
(reflections run dry)
i'm all that remains
(am i losing faith)
i'm my only choice
(reflections run dry)
so do you like the view from there is it a way a path far from what you fear i can not break the mirrors reflections, corrections, have wiped all intentions away
chorus
viola solo (courtesy of paul, one of our talented guitar players)
chorus
losing faith
