Listen!

All this, made by man, exists for one simple reason;
Further harmony amongst humans, happiness, materialistic utopia

Only a few work a counter way,
To conquer, disharmonize and torture this world!
Our days are few, they must be used
Divine reasons show me our path
The pernicious light which has blessed me with it's utter damnation,

Is the holy fundamentals on which our guideline rests Secrets reveal in Satan's code, so clear yet mysterious We enter a phase of completeness in direction as His angels take definite position Firmly rooted in the arcane foundation of pure malignancy,
They reach through this world and beyond We remain through the self defeating consequence of incompleteness (life)
Driven by demonical worship Throughout this world and beyond, I am obsessed by murderous hatred

And errands are yet to come
Trapped in evil ecstasy we are forever cursed
A devilish fertilization nightly executed
It has infected our flesh to bring earth His presence

Follow the light pernicious
Enter the path of murder
Illusions must die since they are mortal
Stare behind the light of Jahve
Honor the end of your natural mind
Your own will must be left behind
