i remember like it was yesterday (yesterday), when i first saw your pretty face (pretty face) kinda took me by surprise couldn't take my eyes off you (my eyes off you) heart started beating through my chest (through my chest)
your beauty put me in cardiac arrest (cardiac arrest) i said i'll never fall again but girl i hit the ground (ground)
tough shorty i ain't getting up at the time i wasn't ready, ready to commit (not ready, not ready, not ready) til you came and had me second guessing (second guessing)

my last love, broke my heart
i said i'll never find someone better but i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again in my last love i gave my all i never planned on giving love a second chance
but i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say it (no, no, no, no)
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say it

never thought that i would get over her (over her) heart broken but girl you made it work (made it work) i was living in the past, i'm all about the future since i hooked up with you girl you opened up a new world for me (for me) widen my eyes so i can see (i can see) i would still be on my own if i never took the chance girl i never would've known cos at the time i wasn't ready, ready to commit (not ready, not ready, not ready) then you came and had me second guessing (second guessing)

my last love, broke my heart (my heart)
but i'll never say never again, never again (i'll never say never)
i'll never say never again, never again
i never planned on giving love a second chance (second chance yeah)
but i'll never say never again, never again (never say never)
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say it (no, no, no, no)
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
never say never, never say never
never say never, never, never

i feel like i was missing out on so much close minded baby you helped me open up i wanna thank you, you made me realize i'll never know if i never try

but i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
but i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say it (no, no, no, no)
i'll never say never again, never again
i'll never say never again, never again
