Broken I've fallen again
I'm lost in the habits of my sin
Jesus I have nowhere else to go
I'm asking for the love that You show
Helpless and unfaithful I bow
Jesus come and be with me now
Reveal to me the glory of Your name
So I don't run and leave this place the same
Beautiful healer, restore this heart
Masterful savior, replace broken parts of me
Merciful provider, lead me by Your hand
Wonderful creator, with You I will stand
As You make my life anew
I am fully dependent on You
