Lord, I'm amazed by your beauty
And your unfailing love
Your grace and your mercy
Are more than enough
Your wrath and your justice
Are in the palm of your hand
The power of forgiveness
I finally understand

You are
More than my mind can fathom
More than my heart can feel
More than my eyes can see
Or life can reveal
You are a great big mystery yet
You are so close to me
You've overtaken me
You are more

Amid chaos and confusion
You have given me your peace
And when my view is disillusioned
Your love has covered me
You've been my strength
When I was so weak
You have given me your grace
So I can be free

You are more
