

One Accord "Taking You"

Visit "Taking You" on MotoLyrics.com

You see my heart for all it's worth
The light the dark, the pain and the hurt
And still find mercy
And still find love for me
The cost to live a life so free
Was paid by you that I might be
This just myself

I'm taking you to the hopeless ones
I'm standing in truth
I'm wanting to live this life
By every word I say
I'm taking you to the hopeless ones

Desperate cries I cannot hear
The hope of life defended by fear
Break this heart of mine
Break this heart of mine
Steal my doubt, chase away my fear
Let me live this out, let me cry Your tears
Of love and mercy
Love and mercy
