the more that i try to fight the more i start to bruise said it's beating me up i ain't tryna lose the longer i stay with her worse it is for me i'm not the type to love cos loving ain't easy i tried to look at her and tell myself i'm done with her you see i'm lying cos i know that i'm the one for her cos she's just like me and i just might be might be sinking in this love that i'm in i guess i gotta go somewhere that i've never been cos i've tried to fight and get back up but she keeps pulling me in her love's like quick sand it keeps pulling me in, it's just pulling me in yeah it keeps pulling me yeah, she just keeps pulling me yeah

it keeps pulling me yeah, yeah every time that i talk to her feels brand new and when she touches to me it's like i can't move it's crazy how her smile erases my memory and it makes me forget everything that was stressing me

i tried to look at her and tell myself i'm done with her
you see i'm lying cos i know that i'm the one for her
cos she's just like me and i just might be

it keeps pulling me in, it's just pulling me in yeah
yeah

and i don't know what i ever did to deserve this i can't stop the feelings even if i tried i'm tryna run away now but i'm scared to lose her know it would be worse if i fell deeper in love

the longer i stay with her, worse it is for me
you see i'm lying cos i know that i'm the one for her
cos she's just like me and i just might be

it keeps pulling me in, it's just pulling me in yeah
yeah
