Can you tell me what is wrong?(
I pour my heart as you look beyond(
What do you see, what don't you see?
(Is it too much for you, believe in me((

You said nothing will change
(It never will be better, trust me
(Just let it be
((
And believe me, I'm sorry

((So tell me now, will you leave?
(Have you had enough? You're fed up with me(
Well go and run, have some fun
(But take what I say, don't just throw it away

Baby nothing will change
(It never will be better, trust me
(Just let it be

And believe me, I'm sorry((
