Carved out eyes,
And left hopeless(
My own daughters left me to die(
So forget the prophecy, left behind(
I write my own future now((

Cause I'm not supposed to live
(My parents they wish me dead
(They knew I would kill them
(You can't hide from truth
(It'll come back to get you
(Take it from me(
Now I'm blind for all eternity

((And so I left them all behind,
After I gave them so much(
I solved their riddle
And fought their Sphinx
(They cast me on the streets

Cause I'm not supposed to live
(My parents they wish me dead
(They knew I would kill them
(You can't hide from truth
(It'll come back to get you
(Take it from me(
Now I'm blind for all eternity
