I see sadness in your eyes though you say that life is great
Stop your acting, tell me now
Please before it is too late and though you're often Talking 'bout your friends I've not met anyone of them Each day you're losing more and more of your confidence
There's No One Else Like You
Only one of you
And we all have great abilities
Hear me, there's No One Else Like You
And remember too
The future's full of possibilities
You don't wanna go to school
Can't you see it's gone too far
Everyone deserves to feel appreciated, popular
But there are many childrens everywhere
Who are teased, who are frozen out Ashamed, scared to face yourself but you should be proud
There's No One Else Like You... a.s.o.
It's not your fault that some are cruel and mean
They try to hide their insecurity Hear me there's No One Else Like You and remember too
The future's full of possibilities
Don't think you're strange Don't try to change into somebody new
The only one keep that in mind There's No One Else
Like You
