I know we had our time,
All our feelings left behind,
You were always on my mind,

When it was time to say 'goodbye'
No more lies; no more cries,
No more tears left to cry,

What do I do when you walk my way?
What am I supposed to say?
Why do I feel this way?
(Why why why?)

Confused feelings,
My heart's still healing,
I don't believe this is the end;
So let's let our hearts collide and beat again,

Where do we go from here?
We're both standing here face to face,
Where do we go from here?
Our love disappeared, went away,
Please bring back yesterday

Been living on my own,
It's been weeks since I've been home,
Lonely is so lonely alone,

Just wanna see if you're fine,
I know that I crossed the line,
Please don't let this be 'goodbye',

What do I do when you walk my way?
What am I supposed to say?
Why do I feel this way?
(Why why why?)

Confused feelings,
My heart's still healing,
I don't believe this is the end;
So let's let our hearts collide and beat again,

Where do we go from here?
We're both standing here face to face,
Where do we go from here?
Our love disappeared, went away,
Please bring back yesterday

No one can replace the way you make you feel tonight,
I love you, always, please believe me, baby hold me
tight,
Baby watching how you move;
It's obvious that you,
Were made for breaking hearts,

Confused feelings,
My heart's still healing,
I don't believe this is the end;
So let's let our hearts collide and beat again,

Where do we go from here?
We're both standing here face to face,
Where do we go from here?
Our love disappeared, went away,
Please bring back yesterday

I know we had our time,
All our feelings left behind,
You were always on my mind,

When it was time to say 'goodbye'
No more lies; no more cries,
No more tears left to cry,

What do I do when you walk my way?
What am I supposed to say?
Why do I feel this way?
(Why why why?)

Confused feelings,
My heart's still healing,
I don't believe this is the end;
So let's let our hearts collide and beat again,

Crash into me,
Let them collide,
Let them beat again,

Crash into me,
Let them collide,
Let them beat again...
