Believe it or not, I love you
I'm missing you more everyday,
Believe it or not,
I still love you, I still love you in every way

Girl where you off to now?
Don't leave me this this I'm already feeling down
You're walkin out the door, you've packed your bag
You're lighting a fag a ndtaking a drag
Your taxi will be here very soon, look up to the sky it's a full moon
I just don't wanna watch you leave
I aint got anymore tricks up my sleeve,
It's raining outside, it's a cold dark night
I hope this will all end up alright
Where you gonna stay? At your mates?
Maybe you can think and get your head straight?
Well I aint going anywhere quick, I aint gonna miss a trick
I've got my phone if you wanna ring
To talk things over, stop this suffering?

Where are you going with that suitcase of yours
Can you listen to me and stop slamming doors?
I know I'm the reason that you've walked out
But you promised me that 'I'm yours'

Believe it or not, I love you
I'm missing you more everyday
Believe it or not
I still love you, I still love you in every way

I still love you in every way,
Hoping that you'll come back some day
Blue skies are stormy and grey
Is this the price that I have to pay?

Since youve fled there's a space in my bed
The smell of your hair and the parfume you wear
You can't have gone far, you aint got no cash
Unless you've had a secret stash

You were gone in a second, you wanted to get out
I hope you will come back soon no doubt
I promise I'll change my ways for you
It'll make us stronger
Make us pull through,
I'll stick to those words until life goes away
Until this world wants to end my days
No-body will ever replace all this
There's only you who I want to kiss
When you've changed your ways, or you've changed your mind
I know you're not the fighting kind
Forgive and forget, don't live and regret
Wishing that we'd never met
What shall I do with all your stuff?
You got your ring here and your toothbrush
Where have you gone? Are you gone forever?
Never been this confused before, ever...
Just give me a sign, that you're fine
Leave me a message and I'll get back in time
I want you to be happy and be yourself
I'll accept for the meantime that we've been put on the shelf...

Where are you going with that suitcase of yours
Can you listen to me and stop slamming doors?
I know I'm the reason that you've walked out
But you promised me that 'I'm yours'

Believe it or not, I love you
I'm missing you more everyday
Believe it or not
I still love you, I still love you in every way

I still love you in every way
Hoping that you'll be back someday
Blue skies are stormy and grey
Is this the price that I have to pay?

I still love you in every way
Hoping that you'll be back someday,
Blue skies are stormy and grey,
Is this the price that I have to pay?

I still love you in every way,
Hoping that you'll come back some day,
Blue skies are stormy and grey,
Is this the price that I have to pay?

I still love you in every way,
Hoping that you'll come back some day,

Blue skies are stormy and grey,
Is this the price that I have to pay
