Is this the time is this the year
When what the prophets told us is gonna happen here
Is he okay the modern western man
Livin' in his luxury as best he can

You wanted to love me
Wonder and feel for me understand
You needed to heel me cover and bleed for me
Give me a new plan
But i wasn't ready for you

Yeah you're so good at cheating
No need to sacrifice
You've gotten oh so used to
Livin' with your sack of lies
Inside you carry cancer
What used to make you free
Now ties you down livin' in your luxury
