

One Side Smile "Slip Away"

Visit "Slip Away" on MotoLyrics.com

You said that you've been waiting
For something big to arise
You said you'd hope to someday
See the sun rise in her eyes
You know that's great
But oh so far away
You always wanted to free your mind
But you never had the time

So let it slip away
And take you higher
Tonight we'll fly away
On burning whings of fire

And so you wanna run away
To the white sandy beach
Near the coast off monterray
Where everything is okay
And no one is there to give a care
It's all laugh and dreams
But you don't know what it means

Everything you have is nothing
Everything you don't have is a chance to let go
And be free
