Just a couple of thoughts of mine
Blinding lights been left behind
There's a dark spot in my eyes
But the more i look i find
It's always been there call it a day
They say nothing is here to stay
Burning scars have healed away
I've seen stars fall it's those blinding lights
As i recall

And you know we can do this
In so many ways so let's choose one

Just a couple of things i lost
Can't remember what it was
Don't ask the meaning or cause
Draw the line i feel your pain
As thoughts come creepin' up again and again
Yeah i know it fades so slow
Gotta let it flow you'll grow
It seems like such a flawed design
But tonight i think we'll be fine

And you know we can do this
In so many ways so let's choose one
So dry your eyes stay with me tonight
Learn to make believe again
C'mon and touch the sky fly and feel the light
Baby dry yor eyes
