This is so much
One night and all is changed
And if all is new know
I see it slowly rearranged
As two become one so easily and free

Falling into this life
Something that i couldn't plan
There in your arms
Where i become a new man
Leaving this world as we soar
Here i find
What i've been waiting for

See the light fall so gently on your skin
Only one touch i feel the fire burn within
It's there in your eyes
I wanna stay i wanna play
There in your arms

Can you put your head on my shoulder
And walk this way with me to the end
To the end
Falling into this love...
